

DISPLAYS AND EXHIBITS POLICY

As an educational and cultural institution, the Spirit Lake Public Library welcomes exhibits and displays of interest, information, and enlightenment to the community. Displays of handiwork, historical material, nature study, or any other material deemed of general interest may be exhibited.

The library assumes no responsibility for the preservation or protection, and no liability for possible damage or theft of any item displayed or exhibited. All items placed in the library are there at the owner's risk.

The director may accept or reject material offered for display. Display of materials does not imply endorsement by the library staff or board.

The following release will be presented to the exhibitor at the time of placement:

Spirit Lake Public Library Display and Exhibit Release

I, the undersigned, hereby lend the following works of art, collectibles, or other material to the Spirit Lake Public Library for exhibit purposes only. In consideration of the privilege of exhibiting them in the library, I hereby release said library from responsibility for loss, damage, or destruction while they are in the possession of the library.
